| 54.00 | 315 | 1796 | Strong, sharp, brilliant impression: entire surface proof: 6 in date almost touches bust: I believe this to be the finest known specimen; a gem for any collection                                                                                |  |
| 44.00 | 316 | 1796 | 6 more distant from bust: fine strong impression: everything sharp except centres of stars on left: hair clear and well defined: eagle's head perfectly struck up (more so than in preceding); it has seen but the slightest, if any, circulation |  |
| 1.30  | 317 | 1796 | Broken die; very fair                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |  |
| 42.00 | 318 | 1807 | Uncirculated: all sharply struck except a few stars: mint lustre still retained: one of the finest specimens known; that in Randall's sale sold for $90                                                                                          |  |
| 2.10  | 319 | 1815 | Barely circulated; clear, bold impression                                                                                                                                                                                                         |  |
| 2.15  | 320 | 1818 | Uncirculated, brilliant and sharp; nearly all the extra fine quarter dollars of this period came from Mr. White's hoard, as he seems to have paid more attention to this series than any other                                                    |  |
| 3.20  | 321 | 1819 | Very slight trace of circulation: strongly struck; very desirable in this condition                                                                                                                                                               |  |

Barber: 13 stars surrounding. R similar to Double Eagle
but enlarged: FIFTY DOLLARS below: fine broad planchet (size 32); fine proof. A prominent Philadelphia dealer recently had one of these and held it at $300, which alone will give an idea of the great rarity of this remarkable piece: this fact, however, has not influenced the owner to place any limit whatever on the piece, which will be sold on its merits solely; first and only one ever offered
- 4.20 422 1878 Goloid Metric Dollar. R composition described within a circle of stars: very few of these pieces struck: desirable;
brilliant proof
